There will be a prize for both winners which will be announced on Thursday 21st December. If you are participating in this project, please let us know at reception so we can add you to our list.

A kind reminder to residents and visitors, to please clear tables following meals in the dining room and place dirty dishes in the trolley provided by the kitchen.

Oil disposal for residents

Following a resident asking me about oil disposal for residents, I am pleased to confirm we can offer this service via our Kitchen team. Please bring your oil container on Wednesdays, before 12pm to Relish Café. It is compulsory for your oil container to have a secure lid and in a container that can easily be poured out into barrels from our contractor (bucket, 20L container, are generally the best).

Staff of the Month

Congratulations to Diana for being our Staff of the Month this November. The success of Market Day wouldn't be the same without all her efforts.

Residents' life stories

We are looking for our next residents to feature in our newsletter. If you would like to share some of your amazing life experiences and stories with the Village, or perhaps know a neighbor or a friend that has an interesting personal history which deserves to be shared, let us know.

Have a lovely weekend everyone!

Marika

A bit of news from me...

Aaron's mom is arriving from the UK this Sunday and will be staying with us until mid-March. She hasn't "officially" met Mia yet, just spoken to her over a screen on the phone.

Mia is posing here, all dressed for the Orewa Christmas Parade last weekend, which she did not enjoy at all haha! The clown made her cry every single time he approached us.

Nurses' Corner

Hello Everyone,

Welcome back to another week of the Nurses Corner.

As we are coming into summer, I just wanted to write a little piece in this newsletter about the importance of getting outside. Getting out into nature can help with mental health & wellbeing. If you haven't been for a while, and are able to, I encourage everyone to get out for a walk down the bottom path. There are some fantastic birds around at the moment. Don't ask me exactly what types of birds they are because I don't really know and will probably get them wrong, I usually just give them names like Jim and Bob.

On another note, with the holidays coming up, for some it is an incredibly happy time of the year, and for others an incredibly hard time of the year. Keep an eye out for each-other and remember to be kind. If you see someone looking a bit unsure or upset, maybe that is an opportunity to reach out and be a friend. You never know who you might meet around this place!

With getting out in Nature and the sun picking up, we are also finding people are coming in with more cuts and grazes, so just reminding everyone we are ACC registered to take care of your wound dressings so if you do have an accident, get in touch with me and we will get you sorted.

We are also experiencing a large increase in community COVID-19 cases. Vaccination is one way to protect yourself from COVID-19. If you are interested in getting the COVID-19 Vaccination, Northcross Pharmacy is providing them for people who have not had a COVID-19 infection or booster in the last 6 months.

From the sales desk

The photography shoot scheduled for the 4th December has now been postponed to January. I will update you in the New Year with our new date for the shoot. Robyn

Lodge Internet Outage

Our apologies to residents in the Lodge apartments and Fairview Care, who were without Internet services for most of Tuesday afternoon 28th November 2023. This was due to a fault outside of our control. We were hoping it would be rectified earlier than it was. Chorus ended up coming on site and eventually determined they had to fix a join in the Internet Fibre cable servicing the Lodge. This took longer than expected. Unfortunately, there is no quick way of informing or updating residents in these types of events. Brett Noonan, CFO

Housekeeping Update

Hi all, it's that time of year again when we are organizing the Christmas and New Year holidays. Our housekeeping team will be taking some leave through this period. This means private cleaning will be on hold, however we will be remaining open for a few essential cleans and the communal areas which will still be cleaned throughout the holidays. Our last clean of the year will be Friday 22nd December and we will return to our routine schedule on Monday 8th January. We will send out a letter advising each resident of their last clean of the year and when we will next see you in the New Year. Thanks, Ellen

Have a look at the wonderful set up made for Pat and Arthur Levett for their line dancers Christmas party. We did champagne ham and roasted vegetables for their dinner, followed by apple strudel and custard.

Guess Who

Can you guess who this resident is?

If you think you know who this is, pop your name and your guess on a piece of paper and place it in the box at reception.

Next week we will publish who the mystery resident is, and who guessed correctly.

Gareth's Puzzle

Last week's puzzle is what comes next in this sequence and why?

Major General, Orion's Belt, New Zealand Flag, ???????????

Well, the above have 2, 3, and 4 stars respectively so we are looking for something with 5 stars. For example, The Savoy Hotel or similar.

This week's puzzle asks what do these 4 items have in common?

Huntz Hall next to Simon Rodia, George Bernard Shaw between Laurel and Hardy, Tony Curtis behind Oscar Wild, Madame Tussaud's The Beatles next to The Beatles.

Good Luck

For those of you that haven't experienced this non-smelling, clear to re-enter in one hour, 6 months guarantee, lasts for a year treatment – then ask your neighbour. I've been in the village for at least 17-18 years and still have my customers on board.

Laughter Lines

A Little Bit of Trivia:

1. The ordinary house-fly flaps its wings about 200 times a second.
2. A Boeing uses 4,000 gallons, (15,141 ltr), of fuel in its take-off climb.
3. Australia is the only place in the world with 25 types of fleas.
4. In Cleveland, Ohio (USA) it is illegal to catch mice without a hunting license.
5. Our eyes are always the same size from birth, but our nose and ears never stop growing.

A young woman was concerned to find an old man weeping loudly in the street and asks him what the matter is. "Everything is perfect," he replies between sobs. "My pension pays me a fortune each week; I have a lovely home, a beautiful young wife and my own private jet and yacht." "So, why are you crying?" asks the young woman. "I can't remember where I live." sobs the old man.

The two tinkers had been walking all day along the Connemara roads. Wearily they came to a signpost. One examined it. "How far to Clifden?" asked the first tinker. "Only 10 miles." was the reply. "That's good, Shure it will only be 5 miles each then."

Jim and Eileen got married in early December and had invited their parents around for their first Christmas dinner together. Christmas Eve arrived and Jim announced his intention of going out for a drink 'with the lads' in order to keep out of his wife's way while she prepared the all-important meal. "Not that you'll have much to do he said. "I've plucked and stuffed the turkey, all you'll have to do is kill it and put it in the oven."

An old gentleman was riding in an airplane for the first time, from Auckland to Christchurch. At Hamilton the plane made a beautiful landing, and immediately a little red truck rushed up to refuel it. The next stop was Palmerston North, and again the little red truck rushed up. The same thing happened in Wellington. A fellow passenger commented to the old gentleman, "These planes certainly make great time between cities." "Yes," replied the old man, "and that little red truck isn't doing so bad either."

They said It:

1. I'm not offended by dumb blonde jokes because I know I am not dumb.....and I also know I am not blonde – Dolly Parton.
2. You see a lot of smart guys with dumb women, but you hardly ever see a smart woman with a dumb guy – Erica Jong.
3. I've been on so many blind dates I should be given a free dog – Wendy Liebman.
4. Children grow up so quickly all of a sudden you look at the phone bill and realize they're teenagers – Roxanne Barr.
5. Old people shouldn't eat health foods.....they need all the preservatives they can get – Robert Urben.

And Finally: An honest 7-year-old calmly admitted to her parents that Billy Brown had kissed her after class. "How did that happen?" gasped her mother. "It wasn't easy, "admitted the young lady, "but three of the girls helped me catch him."

Food Scraps bins

What you can put in your bin

- Fruit and vegetable scraps, peelings, cores, stalks and skin.
- Bread, pasta and rice.
- Dairy products.
- Meat bones and scraps, including fat trimmings.
- Fish bones and scraps, including shellfish shells.
- Eggshells, nut shells and coconut husks.
- Coffee grounds and tea leaves.
- Fats/oils – solidified (if possible).
- Indoor cut flowers.

What you cannot put in bin

- Plastic bags.
- Disposable food containers (including compostable items).
- Food wrapping, including cling film, waxed paper or aluminum foil.
- Cloth and clothing.
- Nappies and sanitary products.
- Pet waste.
- Liquids or chemicals.
- Cigarette butts.
- Soil or rocks.
- Garden waste like weeds, lawn clippings or hedge trimmings.

What to do on rubbish collection day?

Villa residents

Please place your green food scrap bin by the side of the road, next to your rubbish and recycling, every Monday morning for the gardening team to collect. Please ensure that your pink liner bags are tied inside. Leave the handle up to lock the bin lid in place and also make it easy for the collector to pick the bin up - if the handle doesn't lock properly, try pressing down on the lid.

Apartment residents

Please place your tied pink food scrap liners in the small green food scrap bin in the laundry/rubbish rooms. They will be collected every morning Monday to Friday.

Our tips

- Compulsory pink liners are to be used in your kitchen caddy at Fairview as the rubbish collection is done by our gardeners and will help them to keep things tidy.
- You can freeze your food scraps until collection day (for villas) to avoid any insects.
- Use paper to line your kitchen caddy to help soak up any liquids.
- Leave your kitchen caddy in the kitchen - do not take it out for collection.
- We recommend cleaning your kitchen caddy and green bin weekly.
- If you don't use your kitchen caddy or green bin, please store it safely in your unit. Each bin belongs to the unit and is to be left on termination.

Market Day Last Week!

We hope you enjoyed the day!

The sun shone, the coffee flowed, the gelato cooled, the music played and there were smiles galore!

Where to start with the thanks? So many people contributed towards the smooth running of the day.

Thanks go to our residents, their friends, their families, to the helpers, the stall holders and to those who came to enjoy and support the day.

Thanks to our team of staff for the support they provided, wherever it was needed, and not just to those who are front and centre; thanks also to those who are often unseen and work away in the background to make Fairview so welcoming.

Thanks also to the staff and supporters at Settlers. The feedback is that the residents enjoyed themselves and had a lovely day! It was a pleasure having them at Fairview.

Some visiting vendors made cash donations, as thanks for having a space. We added this to an amount we already had and $260 will be donated to Hospice.

Thank you everyone for making it such a great day!

Diana
