

From the Manager's Desk

Good afternoon everyone

Thank you to our Social Committee and all the other residents also involved, for organizing the Melbourne Cup celebrations once again this year. So many nice outfits, fascinators, and hats!

Welcome to our new residents

Join me in welcoming our new residents Joan & Wally Holmes from Villa 100 who moved in last week. I am sure you will love your new home and the Village as much as we do.

Swimming Pool

Last weekend, we were informed of water on the floor of the level 2 hallway, from the pool to the level 2 lift, where there was a sizable puddle right outside the lift. Just a kind reminder to all swimming pool users to please be aware of this potential hazard which could quickly lead to an accident.

Bench seats around the Village

A big thank you to Clive Sandham, Roy Keepin, Terry Denvers and the Blokes' Shed for taking the initiative to bring our bench seats around the Village back to life. It is very much appreciated.

Printed newsletter

Last week was our first time at not delivering the newsletter. We used to print 200 copies weekly but last week 125 copies went out only. Thank you to all of you who are embracing the change and reading the newsletter online. It is making a difference and helping the Village in being more sustainable. If you want the newsletter emailed to you, please contact Cherie. You can always pick up a hard copy at reception from 4pm on Thursdays. Cherie will keep an updated list of residents who cannot physically collect a copy from reception due to health reasons, and it will be delivered by the Kitchen team with dinner deliveries.

Maintenance requests

Our maintenance and gardening team have recently been solicited for miscellaneous jobs, e.g., moving furniture, helping with computer issues. Note that those types of requests are chargeable at a rate of $39 per hour or as pro rata, as they would otherwise put our team behind on their normal scheduled work.

Residents' life stories

We are looking for our next residents to feature in our newsletter. If you would like to share some of your amazing life experiences and stories with the Village, or perhaps know a neighbor or a friend that has an interesting personal history which deserves to be shared, let us know.

Residents' birthdays morning tea – Fri 10th November

If your birthday is in November, I am looking forward to celebrating with you tomorrow at 10am in the Lodge.

“Transfer to an Apartment or Fairview Care” Presentations - November

Our next presentations will be on Friday 10th, Thursday 16th, and Friday 24th November, all at 2pm in the Movie Theatre. Those presentations are for any residents interested in knowing more about transferring to an apartment or to Fairview Care. Sessions are open to 10 people at a time to ensure we can answer all your questions as we go. Please RSVP at reception.

EcoMatters

Food Scraps Collection by Auckland Council – Friday 17th November

Food Scraps collection is finally coming to Fairview! I know many of you have been waiting for this sustainability initiative. EcoMatters Environment Trust, who are rolling out the Food Scraps Project for Auckland Council, will be presenting an informative session to all residents on Friday 17th November at 3pm, just before Happy Hour. Complimentary afternoon tea will be offered by them. We are expecting the bins to be delivered that same day. Please RSVP at reception for catering purposes.

Travelwise Holidays Presentation – Mon 20th November

Travelwise Holidays will be hosting a presentation in the Village Lounge on Monday 20th November at 2pm. Spot prizes and complimentary afternoon tea will be offered by them. Book at reception if you would like to hear more about travel deals.

Market Day - Thu 23rd November

2 weeks to go! The market will take place from 10am to 2pm. Have a read of Diana's notice at the end of the newsletter, it will give you more details about the day. Parking will be at its premium that day and our staff will be parking on the roadside spaces around the Village. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Shopping trip – Thu 23rd November

The Milford shopping trip has been cancelled on Thu 23rd November due to the bus being used for market day.

Fire Drills - Tue 28th November

Take note that Paul Walters, our Fire Evacuation Services Consultant, will be conducting our 6 monthly fire drill from 1pm on Tuesday 28th November. We will also hold an Emergency preparedness & Fire Evacuation information session in the coming weeks, date and time to be confirmed.

Christmas' Competition

6 weeks to Christmas! From 1st December, residents are welcome to join our 'best decorated apartment door' or 'best decorated villa mailbox' contest. Residents will be able to vote for their favorites throughout the month. There will be a prize for both winners which will be announced on Thursday 21st December. If you are interested in participating in this project, please let us know at reception.

Christmas Lunch – Mon 25th Dec

Our Relish Café will be closed on the statutory days over the Holidays; Mon 25th and Tue 26th December, Mon 1st and Tue 2nd Jan. Dinner deliveries will be available on those days. On Christmas Day, we will be offering a special lunch in the Lodge, and we will open the Café for this event only. If you are interested, please RSVP at reception. The menu will be confirmed soon, and it will be a 3-course lunch for $35 per person.

Enjoy the sunny weekend ahead everyone!

Nurses' corner

Hello Everyone,

Welcome back to another week of the Nurses Corner.

Coming into the holiday season, I would like to start out by reminding residents of the importance of letting us know about their travel plans and more specifically when they will be away from their Villas or Apartments.

Secondly, during this time of the year we typically see an increase in the number of scams. It is important to remember the golden rule, if it sounds too good to be true, it probably is. If you are unsure about any communications you receive, or if you feel like you are being scammed, please get in touch. There is a good article about the different types of scams which I will have some printed copies of down by my office.

As mentioned, the last few weeks, I am wanting to do a manual check of the Nurse Call points in every Villa & Apartment as well as Pendants. Thus far all the call points are working as they are supposed to. The next group of call points I will test next week beginning the 13th of November is Olive Grove & Poppy Vale. I will be hoping to do these checks between 10am and 11.30am Monday to Friday depending on how long it takes. Typically, I do these checks on the Fridays of the week nominated. I will let subsequent streets know when I will be coming by to do these checks. For Nurse Call Pendants, if you are going to be out of the village if you leave your pendant on the table, I will test it to see if it works then.

Given the significant number of call points to test across the village, I aim to complete this over the next few weeks to months. To aid in speeding this up, I will access the Villas or Apartments by knocking first, if there is no answer and you have indicated previously it is okay to access your villa or apartment without you being present, I will let myself in, test the call points and leave a card to let you know I have been by. If there are any residents who wish to be excluded from this check or need to be present while I am checking their call points, please let me know by phoning myself directly on 021 861 706 and I will organise a time with you for this.

AFTER HOURS ENTRY GATE AND PEDESTRIAN GATE

Visitor Entry Using the Gate Phone

- The gate phone is in the central plinth on the driver's side of the entryway.
- The driver of the vehicle carries out the instructions by the phone which rings the resident by phoning the residents villa or apartment number prefixed by the figure "0" to make up a three-digit group; i.e. villa 103 = "V103", villa 9 = "V009", villa 61 = "V061", apartment 402 = "A402".
- Once the resident has verified the authenticity of their visitor, the resident presses "9" on the home phone keypad, an audible "thunk" will sound and the entry gate will open.

Entry/Exit Using the Pedestrian Gate

- The pedestrian gate is locked at the same time as the main gates.
- To enter or exit the village through the pedestrian gate enter the code 2033# on the keypad at the pedestrian gate, there will be an audible "thunk" and the gate will unlock.
- The gate will automatically lock on closure.

From the Chef's Oven

Meet my family

Meet my daughters, Ginger & Pepper, and my wife Lea. Yes, you have read it right, my kids' names are Ginger and Pepper as their dad is a Chef. I have named them using my favourite ingredients. This photo was taken 100 years ago (just kidding!) - it was taken in the Gold Coast, Australia when we had a short break a few months ago. It's a Victorian old photo. We would love to see some of your family photos, please share them with us.

Feedback Winner

Thank you for taking the time to write your feedback and suggestions. We have received feedback this week but there was no name or apartment/villa number for a winner this time!

Market Day Menu

We will be offering a special lunch buffet as well as our standard menu and cabinet food for our Market Day on Thursday 23 November. Check our Market Day Menu at the end of this Newsletter. No booking required.

Dinner Choices

As we value your feedback and suggestions, we are pleased to let you know that we will now try to offer two choices of dinners every Friday and Wednesday. On Fridays, we will start serving an oven baked salmon, as well as our famous fish & chips. It will be served with the same sides.

On Wednesdays, we will offer your favorite "Wednesday Roast Meal" as well as a different meat, again served with the same sides.

Always check our dinner menu at the end of the newsletter to see the options. If this trial becomes popular, we will carry on every week. Please let me know your thoughts.

Last week's dinner menu

Have a look at one of our last week's dinners, a seafood treat – tuna and prawns served on mash potatoes.

Relish Crockery / Dinnerware

Many of you do not like to have your meals served in takeaway plastic containers, so we often use our dinnerware. We appreciate this option as well; we can save on rubbish and cost. However, we are running out of plates and crockery e.g., lasagna oval dishes, bowls, and other crockery. Please return the crockery the next day.

Relish Gift Vouchers

Great news! Relish Gift Vouchers are now available for purchase at reception. This would be the perfect gift for this coming festive season. You can use it in the Café at any time, and it is good as cash. You can redeem the amount in full in one purchase, or we can write the "change" balance at the back of your gift voucher. We won't offer cash change to the difference of your gift voucher to your actual purchases.

From the Gardeners

Hello everyone,

Just a little update from me and the boys. What a spring, we've had rain, rain, and more rain! Plants are growing like I've never seen before, with some blooming early and many blooming late. We have plants like our Tibouchina, that should get a prune after flowering or in early spring, but nearing the end of spring, they're still in full flower!

We are all systems go here in the gardening department with our new team. The boys and I are excited to see where we can take the village in the upcoming months and really make the Fairview gardens stand out. We are again very grateful for the patience you've all given us over the last 6 months while we have been short staffed and playing catch up.

Welcome to Wesley, our newest team member, which now brings us to 5 full-time gardeners. Wesley has an eye for detail and is so efficient at hedge trimming/shaping. If you see us around, please stop and say hi. Don't be afraid to introduce yourself to the team: Hugh, Matt, Connor, Wesley and myself Cait.

The race is on with Christmas quickly approaching and only 46 days left to go! Over the next 6 weeks, we will be making our way round trimming, shaping, mowing, edging, and spraying, alongside our day-to-day rubbish, maintenance, and routines of the communal village garden areas.

After the madness of Christmas has settled, we will be back into our thorough clear outs and mulching of villa gardens. We've just hit pause on this leading up to Christmas to make sure we see everyone and get villas tidy for all your lovely guests and visitors.

Again, we do ask if you could refrain from garden requests if it's general trimming work as we are coming round house to house and will see you all soon. Gardening requests must be reported at reception and a request form must be filled out:

- If a request falls within the scope of the routine gardening cycle, then it will be left until the gardening team get to your next cycle.
- If the request falls outside the scope of the routine gardening cycle, then it will be completed as soon as practicable.

Lastly for me, it's getting hot out there in the gardens so if you're out and about, remember to be sun smart and keep hydrated.

Thanks, Cait and the boys.

What's on this coming week and next

Bingo

Another successful Bingo Night was held last Saturday night with a good crowd attending. Some people went home with a smile on their face and one lucky person won the $100 jackpot.

Looking forward to seeing you on Saturday 2 December, 2023 for our Xmas Bingo and you may go home smiling too.

Congratulations to all the winners.

Easy Peasy Picnic Party – Sunday 19th November at 2.00pm

Still a few seats left. This free, around 5-hour trip to the amazing Domain Winter Gardens with an easy backdoor flat access, will be followed by a simple picnic barbeque at a large green park and we'll be home by about 6.00pm. To have a free seat reserved, please put your name(s) together with your residence number into my Apartment's Letterbox 431 in the main Lodge as soon as possible. Enquiries or for more information, contact Jim Bell, Convenor on 027 921 4095

One proud mother!

I have placed a copy of the latest 'Petrol Head' magazine in a folder in our Fairview library. Read how my daughter, Lyndal Stewart, attends car rallies and uses her 1930 Model A Ford vintage car to support mental health.

RETIREMENT VILLAGES ACT REVIEW WORKSHOP – TAKAPUNA 02/11/23

- The 2003 Retirement Villages Act protects the interests of residents and intending residents and provides a framework for regulating and monitoring operators.
- Why the review of the 2003 Act?
Because;
 - i) The Retirement Commissioner's White Paper.
 - ii) Consumer protection issues raised by Consumer New Zealand and various Parliamentary petitions.
 - iii) The Sector needs to be able to respond to future demands.
 - iv) The need for good regulatory stewardship – is the Act still 'fit for purpose?'
- Objectives for the review of the 2003 Act. The Legislative framework should ensure;
 - i) Adequate consumer protection.
 - ii) Effective balance of rights and responsibilities of residents and operators.
 - iii) Appropriately defined rights and responsibilities of owners and residents.
- The scope of the review and the discussion covers three main areas;
Moving in – Living in – Moving out.
- The main proposals within the review.
Moving in:
 - a) Simplicity of both the disclosure statement and the right to occupy agreement.
 - b) Improve consumer protection by strengthening the regulatory tools.
Living in:
 - a) A new independent dispute resolution process.
 - b) A requirement that operators meet the costs of the repair and maintenance of chattels.
 - c) Information on aged care provisions in retirement villages.
Moving out:
 - a) Mandatory repayment time framework.
 - b) Requirement that operators pay interest on unpaid capital soon after an apartment/villa is vacated.
 - c) Stopping monthly fees when apartment/villa is vacated.
 - d) Stopping fixed deductions.
 - e) Requiring liability for capital loss.
- The process for a Bill being presented to Parliament.
 - Step one – a submission period.
 - Step two – submissions are analysed by the Ministry of Housing and Urban Development.
 - Step three – The MHUD officials advise the Minister.
 - Step four – Cabinet agrees to new policy.
 - Step five – A Bill is drafted.
 - Step six – Cabinet approves the new Bill.
 - Step seven – the Bill is introduced to Parliament.
- The process once a Bill is introduced to the House.
 - Step one – the Bill is introduced and there is the first reading of the Bill.
 - Step two – the Bill is then sent to a Select Committee, where oral submissions can be received.
 - Step three – the Bill is given its second reading.
 - Step four – the Bill comes before a Committee of the whole of the House.
 - Step five – the Bill is given its third reading.
 - Step six – Royal Assent – The Governor General signs the Bill into Law, this becoming a Parliamentary Act.

Computer and IT Help

We have two young ladies from Kristin High School helping us out with IT issues once a month on Mondays between 4.00 – 5.30pm. The next session is on Monday 27th November.

They will be able to help with any problems you may have with your laptop, computer, or handheld devices. It doesn't have to be anything serious; you may just want some re-assurance.

Please RSVP at reception.

Gareth's Puzzle

So last week for a change there was a literary question for all our readers. What came fourth?
Gloria Steinem - autobiography, David Brent - film, Jack Kerouac - novel, ??? ???

And the answer is "The Road" by Cormac McCarthy as the sequence is "My Life on the Road" by Gloria Steinem, "Life on the Road" by David Brent, "On the Road" by Kerouac and "The Road" by McCarthy.

This week "History".

What links New York Harbour 1780, Lake Superior 2009, American Falls 1949 and the Thames 1963.

Laughter Lines

The Funny Side of Marriage:

1. Opinions expressed by the man in this house should not be confused with those held by his spouse – Susan D. Anderson.
2. Only two things are necessary to keep one's wife happy. One is to let her think she is having her own way, and the other is to let her have it – Lyndon B. Johnson
3. I have been married so long, I am on my third bottle of Tabasco sauce – Susan Vass.
4. Marriage is a lot like the Army; everyone complains but you would be surprised at the large number that reenlist - James Garner.
5. My wife doesn't care what I do when I am away, as long as I don't have a good time – Lee Travino.

The barman called to Paddy. "What time is it?" Paddy replied, "Don't know, but it is certainly not three o'clock." "What makes you so sure?" asked the barman. "Because I told the wife I would be home by three and I am still here."

Guiseppe proudly announced that his brother in Italy had become the father of twins, a boy and a girl. "That's nice," said his mate. "What did they call the little girl?" "Denise." he said. "And what did they call the little boy?" "De nephew". said Guiseppe proudly.

Mrs O'Grady was weary with the demands of her small son. When he asked for his fifth apple it all became too much. "Look, Sean, you can't have another. The way you go on you'd think apples grew on trees."

Three monastic monks had been living at Clonmacnoise for four years when one of them spoke. "That was a fine black horse that went by." Three years later one of the other monks said, "It was a white horse." Ten years afterwards the third member had his say. "If there is going to be bickering, I'm not staying."

A visitor asked, "Whose funeral is that?" "Jack Tamson's." "What complaint?" Oh, there is no complaint. Everybody's perfectly satisfied."

A little boy was taken to church for the very first time. When he returned home, his father asked him what he thought of the service. "Well," he said. I s'pose it wasn't a bad show for a penny."

A Little Bit of Trivia:

1. Shirley Temple always had 56 curls in her hair.
2. Seven per cent of the entire Irish barley crop goes into the production of Guinness beer.
3. Earth is the only planet not named after a God.
4. On average, 13 people are killed each year by falling vending machines.
5. The beverage, Screwdriver, was invented by oilmen who used the tool to stir the drink.

Five Politically Correct Descriptions of Men: 1. He does not have a BEER GUT. He has developed a LIQUID GRAIN STORAGE FACILITY. 2. He does not GET LOST ALL THE TIME. He investigates ALTERNATIVE DESTINATIONS. 3. He does not get FALLING-DOWN DRUNK. He becomes ACCIDENTALLY HORIZONTAL. 4. He is not BALDING. He is in FOLLICLE REGRESSION. 5. He is not a MALE CHAUVINIST PIG. He has SWINE EMPATHY.

And finally: Two bank managers watch a woman walk past with a $100 note stuck in each ear. One turns to the other and says, "See that woman? She's $200 in arrears."

Door to Door Service in the Auckland metro area

Market Day will soon be here!

Thursday 23 November in the Lodge 3rd floor lounge from 10am to 2pm.
Come and join in the fun!

There will be a variety of stalls, with some of the old favourites and a selection of new vendors to see!

There will be a limited cash out facility for residents at Reception and many vendors will have EFTPOS available for you to make your purchases.

The talented Tracey Collins will add to the welcoming atmosphere by playing her Piano Accordion in and around the Market.

To tempt you we have The Coffee Guy and Mr Gelato serving everyone with a complimentary coffee and gelato, and for a small charge, the Fairview Croquet group will be putting on a sausage sizzle by reception.

Relish Café will be open as usual, and the day's special will be a take-away style buffet for $12.

It will be a very busy day in the Village, and we are asking you not to drive to the Lodge if it can be avoided.

We're looking forward to welcoming our friends from Settlers, many of whom will be chauffeured by Tara in the minibus.

Acknowledgement and thanks to the volunteer residents who have already put their hands up to help. We may need a couple more parking attendants for an hour in the afternoon and if anyone would like to assist our vendors to get their stock ready for loading up at the end of the day, please contact me on dianaw@fairviewvillage.co.nz or 477 3900 (Option 2 for Reception).

There will be more information in next week's newsletter.

We're looking forward to a great day!
