

From the Manager's Desk

Printed newsletter

Second week of not delivering the newsletter! Last week, 100 copies were collected at reception, compared to the 200 copies we used to print. Thank you to all of you who are helping us with his initiative! If you would like the newsletter emailed to you, please contact Cherie. You can always pick up a hard copy at reception from 4pm on Thursdays. Cherie will keep an updated list of residents who cannot physically collect a copy from reception due to health reasons, and it will be delivered by the Kitchen team with dinner deliveries.

Residents' life stories

We are looking for our next residents to feature in our newsletter. If you would like to share some of your amazing life experiences and stories with the Village, or perhaps know a neighbor or a friend that has an interesting personal history which deserves to be shared, let us know.

Driveway and garage ramps for mobility scooters, cars, etc.

If you are looking at buying a ramp for your villa, you are welcome to contact us as we can provide you with a list of suppliers and photos of different ramps. A variation agreement between the resident and the Village Manager must be completed as part of this addition to your villa.

Maintenance requests

We have recently received miscellaneous requests for our maintenance or gardening team, like moving furniture in their unit. Those types of requests may be chargeable depending on the nature of the request. Those special requests are to be approved by the Village Manager and the resident. The same hourly rate of $35/hour, as our housekeeping services, would apply in those instances.

Happy birthday

We wish our administrator Nicki and Head Chef Noris the best of days on Wednesday 22 November!

From the sales desk

We are currently planning a new website and brochure for the village. On Monday 4th December, we will have a professional photographer on site all day shooting various set ups including;

- dining/bar
- yoga
- pool
- bowling
- library & activities
- veggie garden

If you are interested in being a background extra, could you please give Cherie a ring and register your interest please? We will have a better idea closer to the time, as to what order he will be shooting the various set ups, and we can then give you a clearer indication of times of the day you will be required.

Many thanks for your support. Robyn

Gareth's Puzzle

Last week's Puzzle asked: What links New York Harbour 1780, Lake Superior 2009, American Falls 1949 and the Thames 1963. And the answer is those were the dates when the waters froze over. I was in England in 1963, and it was very, very cold.

This week's puzzle is who or what comes fourth in this sequence?

George II , William IV , George III , ????????????????

NOTICE FROM YOUR LIBRARY

1. Occasionally we will notice that a book or two seem to be missing from the Library. We ask you to please look through your books to check if you may have them. If you have, and have read them, would you please return them to the Library for other readers.

Today the missing books are: Where the Crawdads Sing by Delia Owens, and Learning to be French (and Failing) by Anna Bibby.

2. Most of us have authors whose books we enjoy, and maybe we would like to find other authors who write in a similar style. Try googling ... 'who writes like', eg. 'who writes like John Grisham'. You will find several links which will help you find what you're looking for. Hope that little tip helps.
