Here is a little bit more about Maria!

Hi Fairview!

My name is Maria Montecello.

I am a Kiwi born and raised in Auckland - Remuera/Mission Bay.

I have two adult children, a son and daughter, not grandchildren yet but still hoping.

Things that make me happy are:

going to the beach in the winter, music, going to the theatre and travelling the world.

I'm a NZ trained Registered Nurse with a wealth of life experiences from nursing and my personal life. In my career, I was lucky to experience different roles and have worked as a nurse in hospital and corporate settings, a medical practice, for global travel medical assistance, and also for St John Ambulance and the Salvation Army.

I am looking forward to getting to know you all and telling you more about me.

I am really excited about starting my new role at Fairview and can't wait to meet you.

Maria

New recycling requirements from Auckland Council

From next Wednesday 1st February, new national recycling standards will come into effect. Everyone across the country is set to have identical guidelines for what items can and cannot be placed in recycling bins. Previously, it had depended on different locations as to what items were accepted in different local council collections.

Nearly a quarter of the material collected in Auckland's kerbside recycling is contaminated with non-recyclable items like clothes, nappies, and bagged rubbish. This contamination costs Auckland ratepayers an extra $3 million per year in sorting and disposal.

Fines are $400 per offence which Auckland Council will be enforcing for both residential and commercial sites like ours. Our expectations are that all residents will follow the Council guidelines closely and will take care to ensure that non-compliant items are not put in the recycle bins. Please note that if a fine is received and we are able to identify a responsible party, the cost of the fine could be passed on accordingly.

New items excluded from 1 February 2024:

- Items less than 50mm (e.g. caps, small cosmetic and spice containers)
- Aerosol cans (steel and aluminium)
- Liquid paperboard (beverage cartons and juice boxes)
- Plastics 3, 4, 6 and 7
- Aluminium foil and trays
- All lids
- Items over 4 litres

Items accepted in your recycling bin from 1 February 2024:

- Glass bottles and jars (without lid)
- Paper and cardboard
- Plastic bottles, trays, and containers (grades 1, 2 and 5 only)
- Tin, steel and aluminium cans

Please note:

- Empty and rinse all recyclable items and place loose in your recycling bin.
- All recyclable items need to be larger than 50mm x 50mm, but smaller than 4-litres.
- Put all lids in your rubbish bin.

Here are links explaining more of the standards and the changes:

Nurses' Corner

Hello all!

I just wanted to start off this newsletter with an update around my resignation, with Maria starting on Monday the 5th of February, I have decided to shift forward my final day to the 16th of February 2024 which will allow for two weeks to hand-over, support, & orientate Maria into her new role. There will be a Farewell at the Happy Hour on Friday the 16th of February 2024 from 4pm for those who wish to come and share a drink, which I will be looking forward to!

Just a gentle reminder about the magic of kindness. It might not always be a walk in the park, but a little bit of kindness from you can mean the world to someone else. Don't be afraid to drop by for a chat with someone you are close to or reach out to myself or any member of the team if you are struggling. Let's keep things friendly, share a smile or two, and make our little corner of the world a bit warmer.

Bug Doctor

Hello again Fairview Lifestylers

Peter, that's me, the Bug Doctor will be treating villas and apartments from 6th December onwards.
Villas $115.00 and Apartments $75.00.

The village gets a great discount (villas 40% and apartments 35% off) compared to the outside world.
For those of you that haven't experienced this non-smelling, clear to re-enter in one hour, 6 months guarantee, lasts for a year treatment – then ask your neighbour. I've been in the village for at least 17-18 years and still have my customers on board.

Phone/text 021 244 5909. Cheers Peter

Gareth's Puzzle

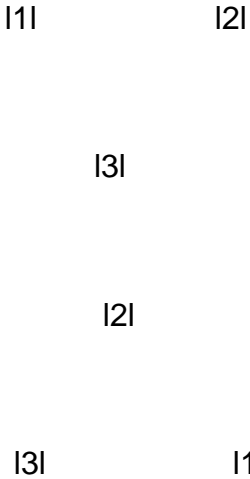

Last week's question asked what comes fourth in the series.

$(b-a-ab)+(1+a)(1+b)-1$, an implement used in rowing , something tied in a rope , ?????????

Well, if you remember the algebra you learned at school, the equation resolves into $2b$, the implement used rowing ia an oar, something tied in a rope is a knot so we have:

$2b$ oar knot and the answer could thus be $3b-b$ making "to be or not to be" - the start of the famous speech in Shakespeare's play Hamlet.

This week's puzzle is spatial. join 1 to 1 , 2 to 2 and 3 to 3 with no lines crossing.

LAUGHTER LINES

Lover's Wit:

1. My wife was too beautiful for words, but not for arguments. – John Barrymore.
2. If diamonds are a girl's best friend, and dogs are a man's, which sex is the dumber? - Rita Rudner.
3. I have been married seven times. I know nothing about marriage, but a lot about separation. - Artie Shaw.
4. A woman driver is one who drives like a man but gets blamed for it. - Patricia Ledger.
5. The most important thing a woman can have – next to talent of course – is her hairdresser. – Joan Collins.

At the supermarket the spinster approached a customer standing by a shopping trolley. "Excuse me," she said, "are you going to use that trolley?" "No," he said, "I am only here for one thing." "Typical male." she sniffed.

Joe had listened to a politician's speech for a solid hour before going outside for a breath of fresh air. "Is he still talking?" asked his mate. "Yeah." replied Joe. "What's he talking about?" asked his mate. "He didn't say." replied Joe.

When the time came for young Bill to join the Army, his mother was very upset – Bill had never been away from home before, not even for one night. "Well goodbye son," said his mother at last. "be sure to get up early in the mornings so as not to keep the other soldier's waiting at breakfast."

"Darling, I hope you don't think that I'm extravagant," said Mrs Newlywed, "but once a month I like to take a bath in milk." "Oh, really," said her husband. "Pasteurised?" Don't be silly, darling." she replied. "Just up to my neck."

A curvaceous young beauty groped her way into the young ophthalmologist's surgery. "I have lost my spectacles," she reported. "Must I be examined all over again?" "No," said the young man wistfully, "Just your eyes."

More Daffynitions: INTERSECT: a very small animal with six legs. EUPHONIUM: a telephone call. FERRYMAN: a small male being at the bottom of the garden. DUELLER: a dealer in precious stones. MISDEED: the daughter of Mr and Mrs Deed. OVERHEAR: the reverse of 'over there.' SUNNY: little boy. SOBERSIDES: cricket teams captained by Garfield. WARFARE: the atmosphere around the wharf. ZINC: where za washing up is done.

Things to Ponder:

1. Why do banks charge you "an insufficient funds" fee on money they already know you don't have?
2. Why do you press harder on the remote control when you know the battery is dead?
3. When I erase a word written with a pencil, where does it go?
4. Why is the alphabet in that order?
5. Isn't Disney World a people trap operated by a mouse?
6. Why do we put suits in a garment bag, and garments in a suitcase?

And finally: Q. When does a person decide to become an Accountant? A. When he realises that he doesn't have the charisma to be an undertaker.
