From the Manager's desk

Congratulations to our AGM Travel Prize Winners

Please join me to congratulate our 2 winners of the travel prize for this year's AGM: David & Dorothy Browne A325 for the 1st prize of $5000 travel voucher and Tricia & Bill Morison V71 for the 2nd prize of $2000 travel voucher.

Maintenance & Gardening requests

We know how much residents love to chat with our team and compliment them on their work or give suggestions, for which we are grateful. Just a kind reminder to please be mindful that our maintenance and gardening staff are busy working and have many duties to attend to. If you have a specific request or feedback, please come and see me or Cherie and we will pass it on. As you can understand, when they are interrupted many times a day, it slows them down on completing all your requests.

We also receive other miscellaneous requests for our maintenance or gardening team, like moving furniture or assemble flat pack furniture. Those types of requests are outside the normal scope of their work and taking them away from their main duties. Therefore, those requests are chargeable depending on the nature of the request and are to be approved by the Village Manager. The same hourly rate of $39/hour, as per our housekeeping services, would apply in those instances.

Recycling in the Lodge

A reminder for residents from the Lodge regarding recycling as our gardening team has noticed a confusion with the bins. Only plastics items with number 1, 2 and 5 are recyclable. Please remove all lids from bottles, jars and cans before putting your items in the recycling bins.

Prostate Cancer Fundraising

Thank you to everyone who donated towards our last fundraising for the Prostate Cancer Society. We raised a total of $275 between the food sold in the Café, the raffle and the donation bucket placed at reception and at the Bar.

Recipe of the Month

Relish Thai Beef Salad

Thai beef salad, known as Yam Nua, is a vibrant dish that captures the essence of Thai cuisine - freshness, balance, and bold flavours. Originating from the northern regions of Thailand, this salad is a delightful blend of marinated beef, crisp vegetables, and a zesty dressing that brings everything together. It's often enjoyed as a refreshing meal, especially in the warmer months, and is perfect for gatherings with friends or family. A few months ago, we served this Thai beef salad as our Chef's special lunch. It was one of the most popular lunch dishes we ever had. Many of you were asking me for the recipe. I know there are thousands of recipes on the internet, but our one is unique, easy and simple and most of all, it's made with love. We are happy to share the recipe with you all!

Ingredients:

Serves 3-4

For the beef:

500 grams – thin slices of sirloin
½ cup sweet chilli sauce
½ cup soy sauce

Dressing:

2 tbsp sesame oil
2 tbsp olive oil
1 tbsp sugar dissolve in ¼ cup hot water
1 whole lime juice and rind (or lemon)
Salt and pepper
1 thumb size crushed/grated ginger
Dash of chili flakes (optional)
1 tbsp fish sauce (optional)
1 tsp toasted black and white sesame seeds
Some chopped coriander

For salad:

Tomatoes, cucumber, red onion, salad of your choice (mesclun, baby spinach, cos lettuce)

Procedure:

1. Marinate the beef for at least 1 hour.
2. Sauté the beef with little oil until it is cooked to your liking (rare, medium or well done).
3. Mix all ingredients for the dressing. Set aside.
4. Mix your salad and vegetables, depending on your preferences – I used, mesclun, tomato, red onion and cucumber. You can add mung beans, noodles and more.
4. Toss the salad, beef and dressing.
5. Enjoy! 😊

Gardening Update

Hello everyone

We're well into spring now and I'm sure many of you have noticed all the sudden growth around the village. Thankfully our two new gardeners, Matt and Seamus, will be joining us from Monday October 7th to help keep on top of everything.

We will shortly begin going around the village doing routine garden maintenance, street by street. Please let us know on the day if you would prefer us to not spray for weeds and if you would like any mulch while we're there.

The croquet renovation will be finished and ready for use from Sunday 10th October. My apologies to Norman, Richard, and all the croquet players for initially saying it would be ready sooner, your patience is much appreciated.

In other springtime news, villa 97 has several large king bromeliad hybrids that are in the early stages of flowering. These were planted many years ago and have taken this long to start blooming so I encourage you to appreciate them before it's too late. Bromeliads are typically monocarpic, which means they'll die after flowering.

I sincerely appreciate everyone's patience while we have been short staffed over the last few weeks and am eager to get back to maintaining all the gardens as soon as possible!

See you out there!

Wesley

Fairview Singers

The Fairview Singers will reconvene next Wednesday the 9th October at 3pm in the third floor Lounge and thereafter at 3pm on alternate Wednesdays. There has been a few new residents in the village and I am sure that among them there must be those who just enjoy the pleasure of song. Our Wednesday afternoon get togethers, are very laid back – just singing for the fun of it, not a choir, no parts, just singing. So, please come along or give me a call – you will be most welcome. Even if you don't want to sing just come along for the fun of it.

Gareth's Puzzle

Last week's puzzles.

1) Our young singer Jessica has just been offered a part in the Opera starting in a month's time. But she was wanting to improve her voice for her part. So, she went off to see Malvina Major for advice. She advised Jessica that the most important thing was to practice singing the vowels three times a day using this sequence: OA, UEA, EEA, UA, IA, AUA. And there is another vowel group that I'll send you later today. What is it?

2) And here are a few more phrases:

a) Table	b) Go IT IT IT IT	c) B	d) T	e) Harm	Harm	Good
Come Table		BOW	O	Good	Harm	Harm
Table		W	U	Good		Harm
Table			C	Harm	Good	Harm

H

And the answers are: The vowel group is UA as these are the vowels for the days of the week. And the phrases are comfortable, Go for it, Crossbow, Touchdown and More harm than good.

This week's puzzles are:

A) What comes fourth in these 2 series?

18th $6+U=7$ 19th $7+N=8$ 20th $8+P=9$??????

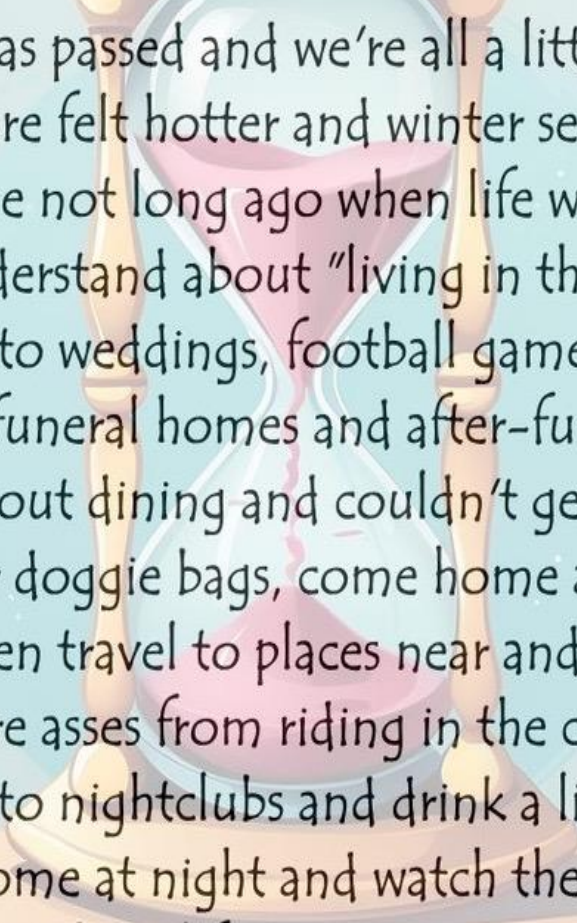

B) Exact = 10 points, 1-5 away = 7 points, 6-10 away = 5points ?????

C) And a few animals: EONPIG LUUVRET KECCAOP BAAACURRD

A Little Poem for Seniors

(so true it hurts!)

Another year has passed and we're all a little older.
Last summer sure felt hotter and winter seems much colder.
There was a time not long ago when life was quite a blast
Now I fully understand about "living in the past."
We used to go to weddings, football games and lunches.
Now we go to funeral homes and after-funeral brunches.
We used to go out dining and couldn't get our fill.
Now we ask for doggie bags, come home and take our pill.
We used to often travel to places near and far.
Now we get sore asses from riding in the car.
We used to go to nightclubs and drink a little booze.
Now we stay home at night and watch the evening news.
That, my friend, is how life is and now my tale is told.
So enjoy each day and live it up...
Before you're too damned old.

LAUGHTER LINES

More Mixed Metaphors from Joh Bjelke-Peterson:

1. We took the thunder out of his sails.
2. He insisted he was not talking through rose coloured glasses.
3. My opponents are using a sledge hammer to grind their political axes.
4. From now on I am watching everything you do with a fine tooth comb.
5. Just wait 'till the shoe fits the other foot.

An elderly spinster was asked why she had never married. She replied, "I have a dog that growls, a parrot that swears, a fireplace that smokes and a cat that stays out all night. Why would I want a husband?"

Teresa answered a knock at the door. "I am collecting for the Home for Alcoholics," the young lass said. "Well come back around nine o'clock," Teresa said. "My husband will be rolling in about then and you can have him."

Two young women who had not met for years were recounting their experiences since their school days."I am delighted to say I married an American lawyer and an honest man," she said. "Isn't that bigamy?" asked the other.

"For what was Louis XIV chiefly responsible for?" asked the history professor. The eager beaver in the front row had his hand up immediately, "Louis the XV, sir!" he replied.

A very cheerful young man strode into the doctor's surgery. "I just dropped in, doctor, to say thank you," he announced. "I would like you to know how much I have benefitted from your treatment." The puzzled doctor looked at him and said, "Er...are you one of my patients?" "No," beamed the young man, "but my uncle was and I have just inherited his estate."

After two months in the Army a Private on his first leave and made what he thought was the best use of his holiday, by getting married. On his journey back to camp he gave the ticket inspector his marriage certificate instead of his railway voucher. The official studied it carefully, then said, "Yes my boy, you have a ticket for a long, wearisome, journey, but it is not the one for this trip."

"The bacon is not too bad darling, a bit burned," said Mrs Newlywed. "But I am afraid the eggs have turned out a bit messy. They were frying beautifully, when all at once the shells cracked and they spread all over the pan."

Daffynitions: ADDICT, great fish, lovely smoked. AIRY, possessing a well covered chest. AWESOME, a proper name, as in Awesome Wells. ALLEY, seen in Beano comics, generally followed by 'oop'. ANNEROIDS, piles. BATTLE, a little bat. APPARENTLY, like a father. BELLADONNA, Italian for 'Bella does not'; e.g. BELLADONNA love me no more. CAJOLE, a retreat for beggars. FREEWILL, not using the engine. GUNNING, crafty. HARDWARE, clothing made of flax. MINARET, slow, graceful dance. PAUSE, what dogs use for feet.

The English buyer looked dubiously at the steeplechaser being offered to him. "Are you sure he is a good jumper?" he asked. "Good jumper, is it.....why, we have to notify air traffic control when he is running."

And finally: Though shot and shell around flew fast, on Balaclava's plain. Unscathed he passed to fall at last, run over by a train. (Apologies to "The Charge of the Light Brigade).
