Update on painting of villa roofs

You may have noticed that the roofs' cleaning did not start earlier this week as planned. Platinum Painters will now be using a quick release chemical, which will not require the initial 3 weeks waiting period. Therefore, cleaning of the Stage 1 villa roofs will likely commence mid-November. We should be able to confirm the start date and schedule next week.

Once the process starts, day 1 will be the cleaning of the roofs, day 2 will be for the repairs, and day 3 should be for the painting, if all repairs were completed the day prior. We will liaise with residents in advance so you can expect when the scaffolding will be set up at your villa. Scaffolding, repairs, and painting should take approximately up to 5 days to complete per villa. We will always do our best to inform residents ahead of time when the painters will be visiting their villa next, weather dependent.

Following questions from residents, here is some more information:

- Platinum Painters will work per individual villa or per block of attached villas.
- Edge protection scaffolding will be erected so we recommend moving outside furniture and pot plants.
- If you park your car outside, we recommend moving your car when the painting will take place.
- If there is any vegetation in your gutters, it will be removed as part of the process.

Stage 1 will be for the villas on the streets below and will be proceeding in numerical order:

- Ash Avenue (3-5),
- Beech Way (6-14),
- Cherry Hill (16-24),
- Magnolia Terrace (120-125/128/130-133),
- Ngaio Lane (136-138/143-145),
- Poppy Vale (135/142/147)
- Olive Grove (146 only)

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thank you to our Ambassadors on our Open Day

Thank you to our team of ambassador residents for their help on our Open Day earlier this week and thank you to all residents who smiled at us and made our guests feel welcome.

Kapa Haka Group

Thank you to Angela Woolnough and the Social Committee for organising the visit of the Kapa Haka Group from Northcross Intermediate School today. And thank you to those 12 talented students who performed, it was delightful to watch.

Relish Café will be closed but dinner meal delivery is available, please contact the Café to book. Waste management will be done on Tuesday 29th October.

Lodge annual fire alarm survey – Tuesday 29th October

Our annual fire alarm survey will take place next week on Tuesday 29th October from 9am onwards. Please note that we will require access to all areas and apartments as our contractor Life Safety will be testing the sounders and MCP's.

Lodge gas fires

We are sorry that one of our gas fires in the lounge has been out of action. Our contractor came today to repair this but might be up to 2 weeks for the gas fire to be working again.

Lodge laundry rooms

If you are a user of our communal laundries, we ask for everyone's collaboration to help our housekeepers keeping them clean and tidy. We are noticing the occasional dumping of belongings, which are then binned. On other occasions, powder detergent was spilt over the bench, sink, and floor, or had ripped tissues on the floor, or coffee spilt down the dryers and floor. We thank you for your help in keeping those areas clean for all residents to use.

Cherie on leave

Take note that our wonderful receptionist Cherie will be taking annual leave every Friday until the rest of the year, to support her family and grandchildren. She will be back to working a full week after the holidays. In the meantime, you will see Diana who will be covering those Fridays.

Residents' Notices

Croquet

Twilight croquet resumes on Wednesday 13th November at 5pm.

Thank You

Thank you to management, staff and friends for making Lorraine's birthday so special. "Now this is home". Earl

Scam

The scam comes through on email supposedly from a close friend and says: "hi. Can we chat. I need a favour".

Please delete it. It means your friends email addresses have been hacked. The favour is wanting you to buy an iTunes card loaded with money to help out a sick friend.

Gareth's Puzzle

Last week's puzzles were:

1) How many pairs of tap dancing shoes do you need to buy for the new 4-piece spider dance troupe?.

2) AT What number does each letter represent?

$$\begin{array}{r} +BAT \\ \hline TEEN \end{array}$$

3) Can you change wine into beer? Then fill in the missing letters:

Wine - Wins - Wits - Wets - Bets - ???? - Beer

Answers:

1) 16 pairs - spiders have 8 legs

2) A=5, B=9, E=0, N=2, T=1

3) The word is Bees, though I'd rather reverse the sequence!

This week's puzzles:

A) A few years ago, my daughter asked me how old I was. I told her that when spelled out, the first digit has the same number of letters as its value and the second digit has half the number of letters as half its value. How old was I then?

B) Josie was looking at her bookcase and pulled out a book. She opened the book and found scrawlings on pages 25 32 34 40 41 50 52 56 60 65 &66. She didn't want defaced pages in the book so tore out the defaced pages. What is the minimum number of sheets she had to pull out?

Enjoy

1940-50's Slang

I guess most of you can remember these expressions and probably more!!

Mergatroyd!

Do you remember that word? Would you believe the spell-checker did not recognize the word Mergatroyd? Heavens to Mergatroyd!

The other day a lady said something to her son about driving a Jalopy; and he looked at her quizzically and said, "What the heck is a Jalopy?" He had never heard of the word jalopy! She knew she was old ... but not that old.

Well, I hope you are Hunky Dory, Right as rain, and as Happy as Larry, after you read this and chuckle.

About a month ago, I illuminated some old expressions that have become obsolete because of the inexorable march of technology. These phrases included: Don't touch that dial, carbon copy, you sound like a broken record and hung out to dry.

Back in the olden days, we put on our best bib and tucker, or bag of fruit, and dressed to the nines. Heavens to Betsy! Gee whillikers! Jumping Jehoshaphat, Strike me pink, Holy Moley!

We were in like Flynn and living the life of Riley; and even a regular guy couldn't accuse us of being a boofhead, knucklehead, dickhead, a nincompoop or a pill. Not for all the tea in China, or rice for that matter!

We wake up from a short nap, and before we can say, "Well, I'll be a monkey's uncle!" or, "This is a fine kettle of fish!"

Poof, go the words of our youth, the words we've left behind. Where have all those great phrases gone?

Long gone:

Pshaw,

The milkman did it.

Don't forget to pull the chain.

Knee high to a grasshopper.

Fiddlesticks!

I'll see you in the funny farm.

Wake up and smell the roses.

Leaves us to wonder where Superman will find a phone booth...

See ya later, alligator!

Okidoki.

LAUGHTER LINES

They Said It:

Missionary friends of ours e-mailed my husband and me about their hopes and dreams of going to Africa for a year. They mentioned the amount of money they would need and asked if we would pay for them. Somewhat surprised, we replied that we didn't appreciate their bluntness. Mortified, they hastily wrote: "We meant, would you pray for us." Claudia Bouma.

Splashing out on a luxury holiday my wife and I arrived at our five-star hotel. When we walked into the marble foyer, we began to feel out of place, as the other guests all looked so wealthy. "McDonald," I said to the receptionist when we checked in. Looking us up and down in disdain the receptionist answered, "Down the road, first street on the right." Alex McDonald.

While walking through a car park, I tripped and fell flat on my face. As I was lying there, a woman motorist stopped and called out from her vehicle, "Are you hurt?" "No, I'm fine," I said, touched by her concern. "Oh good," she said. "Does that mean that you will be leaving your parking space?" Harriett Welling.

-----

Soon after we were married, my husband, Paul, stopped wearing his wedding ring. "Why don't you ever wear your ring now?" I asked. "It cuts off my circulation." he replied. "I know," I said, "It's supposed to." Marilyn Ware.

-----

A Little Bit of Trivia:

1. Placing a piece of charcoal, chalk or several mothballs in a tool box prevents tools from rusting. They will absorb any moisture present.
  2. At the racetrack, the favourite wins fewer than 30% of all horse races.
  3. Typically, two harps are required in a symphony orchestra.
  4. Bees must collect nectar from four million flowers to make one kilogram of honey.
  5. Poached egg means egg-in-a-bag from the French word, poche. When an egg is poached, the white forms a pocket around the yolk, hence the name.

A small boy was given two pence and sent off to church one Sunday morning. One penny was to buy himself an ice cream and the other was to put into the collection plate. On the way to church he tripped over the kerb and one of the pennies rolled down an open drain. Later in church, when the time came for personal prayer, the boy said, "Oh, Lord, I'm very sorry, but I'm afraid I lost your penny down a drain."

-----

"I didn't see you in church on Sunday. I hear you were playing golf instead." "That's not true, Vicar – and I have the fish to prove it."

-----

"My boy, don't you know it's wrong to fish on the Sabbath?" Oh, I'm not fishing Vicar – I'm teaching this worm how to swim."

-----

Some Appropriate Epitaphs on Tombstones:

1. A Hippie: Don't dig me, man, I'm real gone
  2. A Cowboy: He called Billy the Kid a coward.
  3. A lawyer: The prosecution rests.
  4. A Gentleman: Excuse me for not rising.
  5. A Husband (from his wife): Rest in Peace. Until we meet again.

And finally: Did you hear the one about the short sighted tortoise who fell in love with a soldier's steel helmet.
