

The Village News

From the Manager's desk

Welcome to our new residents

Join me in welcoming Ross and Jill Cornthwaite who moved into Apartment 401 yesterday. We are sure you will love Fairview and our community as much as we do, welcome home.

Update on painting of villa roofs

Platinum Painters will start the painting process with the villa roof at Villa 138 from Monday 11th November. As this villa is vacant at the moment, it will be our first villa as a trial, and it should take between 3 to 5 days to complete. Following this, Platinum Painters will move to the block of villas 3-4-5, requiring a week for those. We should be able to confirm the rest of the schedule as we go after this. We will liaise with residents in advance so you can expect when the scaffolding will be set up at your villa. Scaffolding, repairs, and painting should take approximately up to 5 days to complete per villa. We will always do our best to inform residents ahead of time when the painters will be visiting their villa next, weather dependent. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Congratulations to our Employee of the Month Daphne

Congratulations to our Front of House Barista Daphne for winning our Employee of the Month in October. It is always so nice to read all the kind words and beautiful feedback you write about our team, month after month and our staff love to hear too. Daphne was nominated by residents and colleagues for always going the extra mile and being friendly, efficient and conscientious. We are very lucky to have you as part of our Relish Café team.

Transferring to an Apartment or Care Presentation – Wednesday 6th November 10.30am

We will be hosting an informative presentation giving more details on the process of transferring to an apartment or Fairview Care if the need arises in the future.

This presentation will take place in the Movie Theater, and we invite all residents and their families to attend. It's a great opportunity to learn more about how the transfers work and to ask any questions you may have. Please RSVP at reception to book your seat. We look forward to seeing you there and providing all the necessary information.

Market Day 21st November

Our annual market day will take place on Thursday 21st November from 10am to 2pm, please refer to Diana's flyer in this newsletter for more details. We are looking forward to welcoming you, your families and friends all again this year! Complimentary gelato and coffees as usual, as well as a yummy buffet meal from our Relish Café. Over 30 vendors will be at the Village on that day, some of our favourite and some new ones too!

Christmas' celebrations in the Village – 8 weeks to Christmas!

As the year races on, we're starting to think about the festive season. A time for sharing, a time for caring!

Your social committee is busy planning our traditional and popular Fairview Christmas dinner, including entertainment, a 3-course meal and a complimentary glass of bubbles. You can book your spot already at reception, it will be on Wednesday 11th December. More details to come.

There will also be our usual Santa's Lunch on Christmas Day Wednesday 25th December, a 3-course meal available for residents and families, at a cost of $35/person. Details on the flyer at the end of this newsletter. You can pay and book already at reception.

This year again, we would love residents to get creative and decorate their apartment doors or villa letter boxes! Get your friends and families involved, and let's make our Village truly festive. Don't hold back, let your inner artist shine! I'll be decorating my door, too, and I can't wait to see what everyone comes up with. There will be a prize for each category and residents will be able to vote for their favourite ones throughout the month of December.

Upcoming events in the next 2 weeks

- Diwali Butter Chicken Weekend Special – Friday 1st November to Sunday 3rd November
- Bingo – Saturday 2nd November
- Melbourne Cup Dinner – Tuesday 5th November from 4pm
- Transferring to an Apartment presentation – Wednesday 6th November 10.30am
- Gentlemen's Club Breakfast – Friday 8th November 8.30am
- Happy Tuesday 2 for 1 dining in deal – Tuesday 12th November 6pm
- Local Police Officer Presentation on Safety during the Holidays – Friday 15th November 10.30am

We are off to trick or treat tonight with daddy, Mia and 2 of her friends. Of course, at 3 years old, they all want to be dressed up as Elsa from Frozen. Photos to come next week! Happy Halloween!

Have a lovely weekend everyone!

Health and Wellbeing Corner

Afternoon all, an update on my movements for this upcoming week. I'm very grateful to be attending the New Zealand Hospice Conference in Wellington next Monday and Tuesday, end of life care is a huge passion in my nursing career. I'm sure I will gain some great new knowledge to help me supporting residents and families at Fairview. I fly down on Sunday and will be back on Wednesday. You will all be in the very capable hands of Catharina whilst I'm away.

EMOTIONS, THOUGHTS AND FEELINGS...

As we age, and sometimes as our days can get a little lonely, we often sit and reflect on the past, present and our unknown future...

Reflecting on Life: Embracing the Past, Present, and Future

As we grow older, our days may at times feel quieter and perhaps even a bit lonely. It's natural to find ourselves reflecting on all that we have experienced—the joyful memories, challenges we've overcome, and the paths we've taken. Our minds may drift to the past, and we may wonder about the future, too. These reflections are an important part of life. They help us see how much we've lived and can be a source of strength and comfort. Yet, it's also true that moments like these can bring mixed feelings. Understanding how to balance reflection with a healthy outlook can help us navigate this stage of life in a fulfilling way.

Embracing the Past with Kindness

Looking back on life is inevitable and can bring up a wide range of emotions. Remember, it's okay to feel these emotions - they are part of honouring the full, rich lives we've led. Celebrating memories and sharing stories with loved ones can be a wonderful way to embrace the past while also connecting with others.

Living in the Present

Finding small moments of joy in daily life can be a great way to ground ourselves in the present. Try filling your days with simple pleasures: a chat with a friend, a walk in the garden, reading a book, or trying something new. Staying engaged with hobbies, attending village events, and sharing laughs and conversations can all help keep the focus on today, fostering contentment and reducing feelings of loneliness.

Looking Forward with a Positive Outlook

Though the future is unknown, it doesn't have to be a source of worry. Consider small plans, whether it's a future trip, a special event, or even next week's puzzle in the newsletter. Setting small, positive goals can help us keep a healthy balance of looking forward without stress. And remember, reaching out to family, friends, or your nurse can provide support and comfort if feelings of uncertainty arise.

Tips for Managing Loneliness

Connect with others: A friendly chat, a shared meal, or a brief phone call can make a world of difference.

Stay active: Engaging in activities you enjoy, like reading, gardening, crafting, it can bring fulfilment and joy.

Seek support when needed: If feelings of loneliness become overwhelming, don't hesitate to reach out. Talking to a friend, loved one, or member of the nursing team can be reassuring.

Practice gratitude: Each day, try to find one thing that brings you a sense of peace or joy - it could be something as simple as a warm cup of tea or a beautiful sunset.

Remember, you're not alone in these feelings, and you don't have to navigate them by yourself. We are here for each other as a community. Embracing the past, staying present, and looking to the future with hope can help us make the most of each day.

Please reach out for advice and medical assistance day and night from our nursing team, we are here to support you. Please DO NOT LEAVE VOICE MESSAGES ON THE NURSES PHONE ring back or text.

Upcoming event:

Local Police Officer, Simon Fox, coming to talk about keeping safe over the Christmas holiday period Friday November 15th at 10.30am.

Maria and the nursing team

From the Chef's Oven

Did you know?

1. We offer cold beverages such as iced coffee, iced mocha, smoothies and more, perfect for the warmer weather coming up. Please ask one of our friendly team members.
2. You can drop off your used cooking oil every Wednesday at the café for us to discard. Just a reminder we only collect used oil and no other kitchen condiments.

Catering at Settlers

We recently had the pleasure of providing outside catering for our sister village Settlers. Their residents enjoyed a delicious selection of gourmet canapes, expertly crafted by our combined kitchen teams (Fairview and Settlers). The event was filled with joy, laughter, and cherished memories, making it a truly special occasion for everyone involved.

Halloween Special Menu

A big thank you to all our wonderful residents for trying out our special Halloween menu! We loved bringing festive flavours and spooky delights to our Village. Your support means the world to us, and we hope our treats added a touch of magic and fun to your week. We served monster burgers, bones from the grave (BBQ pork ribs), spaghetti eyeballs and more. Check out some of our spooky dishes!

Diwali Festival – From Friday 1st to Sunday 3rd November

Celebrate the vibrant spirit of Diwali with our special Butter Chicken menu! Indulge in rich, creamy flavours that capture the essence of this joyous festival. Perfectly spiced and paired with traditional rice, roti and a garden salad.

Melbourne Cup – Tuesday 5th November

Check out our 3-course meal at the end of this newsletter. Bookings and payment at reception.

Gentlemen's Club Breakfast – Friday 8th November

We will do an early breakfast at 8:30am this time. We will offer our men's favourite breakfast – eggs on toast with bacon, sides of hashbrown and mushrooms for $15 only. Please book and pay at the café.

Happy Tuesday 2 for 1 dining in deal – Tuesday 12th November

We are now SOLD OUT for the happy Tuesday deal. If we receive any cancellations we will advise you in the daily emails. This will be our last culinary trip of the year. We will take you to ITALY – we will do a chicken and pasta dish, it will be a grilled chicken on penne pasta with puttanesca sauce, drizzled with basil pesto and topped with parmesan cheese and an optional dessert of Panna Cotta.

Ladies' Tea Group – Tuesday 19th November 10am

Have a look at what we served earlier this week on Tuesday to our ladies' tea group. A smashed avocado canape and a traditional scone with jam & cream, and a surprise sausage sizzle. Save the date, our next ladies' tea group will be on Tuesday 19th November at 10am.

Market Day Lunch Buffet - Thursday 21st November

There will be a special $15 lunch buffet on the day. Menu at the end of this newsletter. No booking required, no seating arrangement. Just come and pay at the Café on the day.

Donut Friday

Don't forget our Donut Friday tomorrow, home made by our talented baker Celeste. It's only $4 each or 3 for $10. Better be quick, first come first served.

Alternative Dinners – Frozen Meals

This week we have roast lamb slices, lamb shanks, beef bolar roast, braised rump steak. You can pick up any time at the café unless you require it heated and delivered then the same dinner cut off applies at 12:00pm.

Chef's Special for the month of November

Chicken Greek Salad – crispy chicken breast served on a bed of Greek garden salad – feta cheese, sundried tomato, olives, tomatoes, cucumber & mesclun and drizzled with vinaigrette and balsamic glaze.

Social Committee News

Some months ago, we greatly enjoyed a visit from Westlake Girls High School Choir, Cantare. We were impressed not only by the girls' voices and choice of music but also the fascinating sound effects such as the clicking and drumming of fingers conjuring up the sound of raindrops.

Cantare were practising for The BIG SING. This is a huge choral festival involving about 8000 students from more than 200 schools in New Zealand. The Big Sing Finale brought together 24 choirs at the Michael Fowler Centre in Wellington for a three-day sing-off. There were many medals presented but only eight gold medals and Westlake Girls Cantare Choir won Gold.

Westlake Boys Choir, Voicemale also took gold. The two schools then combined into the choir Choralation, winning a third medal. A huge success for Westlake schools.

Congratulations from Fairview Village to all the students involved and their vibrant directors, Fiona Wilson and David Squire. These superb performances were broadcast by RNZ Concert and may be viewed on YouTube.

Garden Club

A big thank you to all the lovely residents who kindly donated lots of plants, preserves, etc. for our sales table last Wednesday which made it a big success. Also, a big thank you to our helpers Lesley, Linda and Jim. The plants etc. which didn't sell were donated to the Hospice Shop in Link Drive.
Barbara Dines

New Bus Sign

A bus sign has been installed East of the Mobil Petrol Station and before the bridge in Fairview Avenue. A shelter is yet to be constructed.

Two free tickets to movie "Conclave" – Friday 1st November at 8:00pm

A resident has donated 2 movie tickets to see Conclave, which is showing at The Bridgeway, 122 Queen Street, Northcote Point on Friday 1st November at 8:00pm. This movie has been very popular and every session has sold out. If you would like these tickets, please contact reception.

Gareth's Puzzle

Last week's puzzles were:

- A) A few years ago, my daughter asked me how old I was. I told her that when spelled out, the first digit has the same number of letters as its value and the second digit has half the number of letters as half its value. How old was I then?
- B)
- C) Josie was looking at her bookcase and pulled out a book. She opened the book and found scrawlings on pages 25 32 34 40 41 50 52 56 60 65 &66. She didn't want defaced pages in the book so tore out the defaced pages. What is the minimum number of sheets she had to pull out?
- D)

Answers are:

- A) This one is a bit unclear, the first number is 4 as it has 4 letters and the second is either 2 or 6. I said it was a few (!) years ago.
- B) There are 11 defaced sides, Either 40&41 are on the same leaf/sheet or 65&66 are - but not both. So Josie has to pull out 10 leaves/sheets.

Let's see if I can do better this week:

- 1) What comes next? Sensational, Inspirational, Celebrational, ??????????
- 2) What have these in common? Fifth book of New Testament, Solo vocal improvisation, Assembly of actors, Felines?
- 3) And a few quirks to decipher.

LAUGHTER LINES

One Liners:

1. The plumber finally arrived. "How have you managed?" "Not too badly," said the housewife. "While we were waiting for you I have taught the kids how to swim."
2. An Irish handyman went down to the hardware store for some bolts. "How long do you want them?" enquired the salesman. "Well, to tell you the truth," replied the handyman, "I was hoping to keep them."
3. Seasoned couple at an airlines reservation counter: "Two tickets to wherever our luggage is going, please."
4. "I wouldn't go to America if you paid me," said Fred the Okker. "Why?" asked his mate. "Cos they drive on the wrong side of the road." "What's wrong with that?" "I tried it the other night, boy, it's really dangerous."
5. Paddy Murphy thought the Guinness Book of Records was an LP of Irish drinking songs.

Wedding Telegrams.

1. To the Groom: Congratulations Gerald. It was better to have loved and lost, than never to have loved at all. – Mary, Terese, Wendy, Karen, Julie, Barbara, Estelle and Agatha.
2. To the Bride: Congratulations from your loving mother. Twenty two years ago I sent you to bed with a dummy. Tonight history repeats itself."
3. To the Groom: Congratulations Jimmy, and welcome to the family of the delighted father of the bride. Now that I have given the bride away, can I have a receipt?
4. To the Groom: From the local feminist movement. And remember that no woman ever shot her husband while he was doing the dishes.
5. To the Groom: Congratulations from the Best Man. Can I have first option on your little black book with all your ex-fiancee's names and phone numbers?

The Court Martial decreed that the deserter be taken to Boot Hill where he would be shot. It was a grim and rainy day and at dawn the firing squad arrived to escort the condemned man a mile or more to his execution. He grumbled all the way, "Fancy having to march all the way in this terrible weather just to be shot," he lamented. "Yeah, but think of us," said one of his guards. "We've got to march back again."

"Honestly I took twelve hours to play my round," a husband explained to his furious wife. "What!" For eighteen holes?" his wife asked in obvious disbelief. "Well, sixteen actually, Fred died of a heart attack on the second hole and it's such slow going when you have to hit the ball, drag Fred, hit the ball, drag Fred, hit....."

It was the first day on the job for the pretty blonde steno just out of school. Her bos picked up the first of her finished letters, and with a sigh said, "You can't spell very well can you?" I see you spelled sugar, s-u-g-g-e-r." "Oh, dear, so I have," she exclaimed. "How do you suppose I came to leave out the 'h.'"

A tourist was visiting New Mexico. While gazing at dinosaur bones he asked the old Indian who acted as the official guide, "How old are these bones?" "Exactly one hundred and three million years old," the old man replied. Wow!" exclaimed the tourist. "How can you be so precise?" "Oh," said the Indian, "a geologist told me they were one hundred million years old, and that was exactly three years ago."

And finally: Teacher: Can you give me a sentence using the word 'officiate' in it?"
Pupil:"A man got sick from a fish he ate."
