

The Village News

From the Manager's desk

Welcome to our new resident

Join me in welcoming our newest resident Philippa Verrell who moved in to Villa 87 yesterday. Welcome home and we are sure you will love your new community as much as we do, we are looking forward to seeing you around in the Village.

Update on painting of villa roofs

Platinum Painters is waiting on the delivery of the edge protection, and this has been postponed to the middle of next week. This will delay them with the original start date of Monday 11th November at unit 138, which will now be towards the end of next week. As this villa is vacant at the moment, it will be our first villa as a trial, and it should take between 3 to 5 days to complete. Following this, Platinum Painters will move to the block of villas 3-4-5, requiring a week for those, and carrying on this way. We should be able to confirm the rest of the schedule as we go after this. We will liaise with residents in advance so you can expect when the edge protection will be set up at your villa and know when to move your pots, cars or other items if need be. Edge protection, repairs, and painting should take approximately up to 5 days to complete per villa. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Removal of a brush wattle tree at the back of the Lodge – Friday 8 November

Our contractor Dizzy Heights will remove a brush wattle tree at the back of the Lodge this Friday 8/11 early morning. Wesley and the gardening team will cone off some of the carparks by the building at the back from Thursday 3pm until Friday midday.

We are looking forward to welcoming you, your families and friends all again this year! Complimentary gelato and coffees as usual, as well as a yummy buffet meal from our Relish Café. Over 30 vendors will be at the Village on that day, some of our favourite and some new ones too!

Your social committee is busy planning our traditional and popular Fairview Christmas dinner scheduled on Wednesday 11th December, including entertainment, a 3-course meal and a complimentary glass of bubbles. You can book and pay at reception. More details to come.

Our traditional Santa's Lunch will take place on Christmas Day Wednesday 25th December, a 3-course meal available for residents and families, at a cost of $35/person. You can pay and book already at reception. Flyer in this newsletter.

Christmas decor in the Village

This year again, we would love residents to get creative and decorate their apartment doors or villa letter boxes! Get your friends and families involved, and let's make our Village truly festive. Don't hold back, let your inner artist shine! I'll be decorating my door, too, and I can't wait to see what everyone comes up with. There will be a prize for each category and residents will be able to vote for their favourite ones throughout the month of December.

Fairview Staff Service Award Celebrations

We celebrated some very important milestones yesterday with our team at Fairview Village and Fairview Care. 5 of our combined staff were celebrating between 15 to 20 years of service each at Fairview. Our kitchen assistant Usha has been working in our community for 15 years, she transferred from Fairview Care to our Kitchen department 2 years ago. When we think of Usha, it's impossible not to smile, her laugh is contagious, and her energy fills the kitchen with life. On behalf of everyone here at Fairview and PLVL, I want to extend our deepest thanks to her. We are lucky to have her, and I know residents and staff feel the same way. We look forward to many more years of memories together.

Congratulations on your incredible achievement, 15 years of hard work, laughter, joy and excellence. You truly are a one-of-a-kind, Usha! Thank you.

As promised, photos of Mia's Halloween outfits last week.

Have a lovely weekend everyone!

Health and Wellbeing Corner

Afternoon all,

I am back from my Hospice Conference in Wellington, I wasn't impressed by the cold and very strong winds, however I learnt a lot and engaged with some great seminars. Overall, I really enjoyed it and now being able to put my learning into practice in the future. I am very grateful for this opportunity to attend.

As we are now into November and Christmas approaching, we may be invited to end of year social events for clubs, groups and friends, it seems to get quicker each year.

I'm sure we will all start attending social events to celebrate and enjoy ourselves with others, but please be mindful and safe as we enter this wonderful time ahead.

🎄 A Festive Cheer for All to Hear 🎄

The holidays are coming, a time to celebrate,
With friends, food, and laughter—oh, it's going to be great!
Our social calendar's sparkling, full of good cheer,
With music and mingling as we wrap up the year.

Raise a glass to the season but remember the rule
A toast or two's lovely, but don't over-fuel!
Our health is a treasure, and so is each friend,
So let's keep our wits about us right to the end.

If you take medications or have health to mind,
Be mindful with drinks that might not be kind.
Pace yourself slowly, savour each sip,
Enjoy every moment, don't let it slip!

We'll laugh and we'll dance, share memories so bright,
And cherish each other in the soft, festive light.
So here's to good fun, to our health, to our friends
May joy and good sense last 'til season's end!

Remember it's totally OK to attend any function, you don't have to drink alcohol, a lemon lime and bitters or an orange juice goes down just as well. It's about being with great friends and celebrating 2024.

Please reach out for advice and medical assistance day and night from our nursing team, we are here to support you. Please DO NOT LEAVE VOICE MESSAGES ON THE NURSES PHONE ring back or text. Also, if you are trying to reach the nurse, please ring directly to our phone on 021 861 706 then we can ring you back if we miss your call. We can't trace a caller when its rung through the reception phone line.

Upcoming presentation and last one for the year

- ❖ Local community constable Simon Fox will come and give a presentation about keeping safe over the upcoming holiday period. It would be lovely to see many of you there to support our presentations. Friday 15 November at 10.30am in the main lounge.

Maria and the nursing team

Melbourne Cup - Tuesday 5th November

We are so grateful to all our residents who joined us for our special three-course meal. Your presence made the evening truly memorable. Pork belly was a hit, especially when we were searing the pork on the BBQ earlier in the afternoon while the bowlers were playing, it smelt like summer in the village. And most of all, thank you for your wonderful feedback on our delicious pub style 3 course meal.

Alternative Dinner – Frozen meals

This week we have roast lamb slices, beef bolar roast and braised rump steak. You can pick up any time at the Café unless you require it heated and delivered where the dinner cut off applies at 12pm.

She has been a constant source of positivity, reliability, and fun, bringing her incredible energy to every shift. Known for her cheerful attitude and exceptional work ethic, Usha has made a lasting impact on all of us. Fairview Outdoor Bowls

Fairview outdoor bowlers held a tournament on Monday 4th November. Seven other villages were invited with a total of 48 bowlers competing. The weather was kind to us and a great day of bowling happened. Luck was not on Fairview's side but there were old and new friendships made and compliments received of how well Fairview organized the tournament. A big thank you to all the helpers on the day.

Gareth's Puzzle

Last week's puzzles were:

- 1) What comes next? Sensational, Inspirational, Celebrational, ??????????
- 2) What have these in common? Fifth book of New Testament, Solo vocal improvisation, Assembly of actors, Felines?
- 3) And a few quirks to decipher.

SPREAD2 , DARCK, CORPSE , PLATE
MY E

And the answers are::

- 1) Muppetational - being the musical start to each Muppet show - surely you remember that!
- 2) The words are Acts, Scat, Cast, Cats - all having the same letters
- 3) The quirks are:
Spread too thin, See in the Dark, Over my dead body, Step up to the Plate.

This week's puzzles are both what comes next?

- 1) Sashimi, Roast Chicken, Biscotti, ??????????
- 2) Cards in a deck, Lines in a Sestina, Letters in the English alphabet, ???????

And I am so pleased that after so many e-mails between myself and Auckland Transport, and delays for so many reasons that the bus stop (+ a bonus shelter) have arrived on Oteha Valley Road so we can get back to Fairview from the bus-station, or on to Browns Bay. I'm sure I'll use it - one day!

Billy Boggs, the local Casanova, was reminiscing to a friend, "I know nine girls on Ormond Road alone." he informed him. "All told?" asked the friend. "No," said Billy. "One of them kept quiet."

A manufacturer received a whopping bill from his lawyer. He accepted everything until he came to this item, "For crossing the road to talk to you and discovering it wasn't you at all: $500."

An embittered author summed up his publisher as follows: "Broke as the Ten Commandments, so conceited he does the crossword with a fountain pen, and so crooked that every time I shake hands with him I count my fingers before I leave."

The principal of a school in the backblocks of Western Australia asked a gangly scholar, "How much is seven and seven?" Ten?" hazarded the scholar. "Well, I'll mark you as passing," said the Principal, "seein' as how you only missed by one."

"I simply gotta divorce that woman," the disconsolate man explained to the court. "She insisted on keeping a pet goat in our bedroom. The smell got so terrible I just couldn't stand it any longer." The judge shook his head. "That sounds bad," he admitted, "but couldn't you just open a window?" "What?" cried the husband. "And let all my pigeons get out?"

A big syndicate was about to launch a new newspaper in Auckland and offered a huge cash prize to the person who submitted the best name for it, along with a short essay on why the name should be used. The winner of the competition suggested that, even though there had been a newspaper with that name years ago, it should be called, "The Truth," His reason: Every time anybody comes up to the newstand to buy a paper, the proprietor could say, "What do you want? 'The Truth' or 'The Herald?'"

One Liners:

1. It's no disgrace to be born poor. It's no disgrace to die poor. But in between it doesn't hurt to be rich.
2. The only person who got all his work done by Friday was Robinson Crusoe.
3. After the project is completely stuffed, all those who initially endorsed it will say they wished they had voiced their reservations at the time.
4. I reach a conclusion whenever I am tired of thinking.
5. Change is inevitable. Except from a vending machine.

Daffynitions: BIGOTRY, being married to two or more people at the same time. BATHING SUIT, a garment cut to see level. CLOAK, the mating call of a Chinese frog. LETTER BOMBS, post mortems. SUNGLASSES, optical seclusion. ANNALYSE, Anna is not telling the truth.

And finally: Freedom of speech is a great thing. It even allows some people to talk nonsense.
